C_1

The diagram consists of a large square frame. Inside this frame is a smaller square defined by a black border. Within the black-bordered square, there is a horizontal dashed magenta line that divides the square into two equal halves. The entire diagram is enclosed by a thin blue border. In the center of the square, the text D_1 is displayed in a large, gray, sans-serif font.
